INFORMATION GOVERNANCE NEWS

Andrew Ysasi

Andrew started IG GURU® in 2018 as a way to keep up with the information governance industry. Little did he know IG GURU® would gain a following and sponsors soon after it started. He remains humbled by the support and the growing IG GURU® community. Your commitment as a sponsor introduces you to a broader audience and helps connect everyone around the world to a free news IG resource and information governance community.

Peter Kurilecz

For over fifteen years Peter Kurilecz was the face of the RECMGMT-L listserv, an international community of records and information professionals. Peter and his co-admin Marc Wolfe decided last year to seek out someone or something willing to take over the administration of the listserv. The listserv has been in existence for close to 30 years and they wanted someone who would care for it going forward. At the same time Andrew approached them asking if they would be interested in migrating to IGGURU. Serendipity!. Marc and Peter quickly agreed.

With almost 40 years experience in the RIM/IG profession Peter agreed to stay on as an Advisor and to help IGGURU grow.

Our Story

The founders of the RIM Listserv spent 20 years and countless hours ensuring people in our field had a place to ask questions and learn from each other. Over time, the Listserv became like a guru we could all rely upon. We wanted to make sure the Listserv community lived on where professionals, academia, vendors, and associations could collaborate on a new and enhanced site called IG GURU®. Further, we look forward to providing an archive of the Listserv to preserve the past 20 years of content. Thank you to the founders of the Listserv and our sponsors for making IG GURU® happen. We could not have done it without you.

About

IG GURU® (igguru.net) posts meaningful news and provides a community forum related to Information Governance subjects. Records Management, EDiscovery, Information Security, Information Privacy, Audit, Compliance, Regulations, Laws, and Risk are a few of the subjects we cover. We publish IG news and sponsored content to our audience of over 10,000 individuals via LinkedIn and Twitter. Of the 12,000 individuals, approximately 3,000 are affiliated with ARMA and ICRM.

Mission and Purpose

IG GURU®'s mission is to provide industry news and host a community for IG professionals around the world.
